

Welcome to CQ Legislative Impact, the revolutionary service that enables you to take the next step in legislative tracking — determining how pending legislation would impact existing laws.

CQ Legislative Impact integrates Bill Text with Public Law Text and U.S. Code so that you'll be able to make the connections between pending bills and current law faster and more accurately than ever before. Plus, customized e-mail alerts give you an early warning when bills are introduced that might affect the laws you monitor.

CQ Legislative Impact allows you to call up a bill — from this Congress or previous sessions — and instantly see which sections of the U.S. Code or Public Laws would be altered by the bill. Similarly, you can find a law and see how various bills have amended it over time — or how pending bills propose to amend the law today.

We hope that this guide will give you an overview of the basic functions and provide answers to frequently asked questions that arise about CQ Legislative Impact. As always, should you require any further assistance or personalized training, please feel free to contact the Account Management team at hotline@cq.com or by phone at 202-419-8511.

We look forward to serving you.

Overview

To access CQ Legislative Impact, log into your CQ.com account. You can view CQ Legislative Impact – and all CQ.com products – from the ‘Jump to a publication’ drop down menu located on the upper-right side of the screen.

From there, go to the MyCQ tab and click on the Legislative Impact link.

A screenshot of the CQ.com search interface. It features a 'Show Me:' section with a dropdown menu set to 'Use Law List' and links for 'Create a law list' and 'More search options'. Below this is a 'Select one search option' section with several input fields: 'U.S. Code Cite:' (with example '(11 U.S.C. 555, 16 U.S.C. 777c)'), 'Statute At Large Numbers:' (with example '(119 Stat. 594, 115 STAT. 272)'), 'Public Law Numbers:' (with example '(PL 109-58, PL 92-225)'), 'Words in Act Name:' (with a 'Browse List of Act Names' link), 'Words in Public Law Text:' (with example '(Since the 106th Congress)'), 'Bill Numbers:' (with example '(Current Congress) (HR10, S20, HCONRES3)'), and 'Use Word List' and 'Use Bill List' options. There are 'Go' and 'Clear' buttons at the bottom.

There are multiple ways to search or browse for the information you need.

A screenshot of the CQ.com search interface, similar to the previous one, but with an error message displayed. The error message is a small dialog box with a yellow warning icon and the text 'Please only select one search option'. The 'Words in Act Name:' field contains the URL 'http://www.cq.com'. The 'Go' and 'Clear' buttons are visible at the bottom.

Note: You will only be able to search using one option. If you request to search by more than one option, you will receive an error message.

Call CQ at 202-419-8511 or e-mail the hotline@cq.com for assistance.

In addition to conducting specific searches, you also can browse by Act Name and PL Number.

Access Enhanced Bill Text

1. To access enhanced Bill Text, log into your CQ.com account. You can access Bill Text from the 'Jump to a publication' drop down-menu located on the upper right of the screen. Alternatively you can go to the MyCQ tab and click on the Bill Text link. You also can access the service through the Search tab.

The screenshot shows the CQ.com search interface. It features four columns of source selection: News Sources, Bill Sources, Committee Sources, and Other Search Pages. The 'Bill Text' checkbox under 'Bill Sources' is checked. Below the source selection, there are search criteria fields: 'Words' (containing 'lobbying reform'), 'Bill Numbers' (empty), and 'Items Added' (with 'Since' and 'and' dropdowns). There are 'Search', 'Clear', and 'Advanced' buttons, along with a 'Show 25 Results Per Page' option.

2. On the search form, Bill Text will be cited as a source. Enter the bill numbers you wish to see or enter words for your Bill Text search. In the example below, the search was based on the words "lobbying reform." In addition, you can access Legislative Impact from this page.

The screenshot shows search results for 'lobbying reform'. It displays three documents found, each with a 'Text' link and a 'Legislative Impact' link. The first document is HR 5677, the Ethics and Lobbying Reform Act of 2006. The second is HR 4920, the Accountability and Transparency in Ethics Act. The third is HR 4696, a bill to make certain reforms in lobbying, ethics, and campaign finance laws. 2. Check the box next to the specific U.S. Code section you'd like to track.

The screenshot shows the United States Code website interface. At the top, it says "United States Code" and "Current through Public Law 109-241, enacted July 11, 2006". Below that, there's a "Notes" section and a "For checked sections:" dropdown menu with a "Go" button. The main content area lists sections under "Title 6 - DOMESTIC SECURITY (Jun 5, 2006)". A callout bubble with a red border and white text says "Use the drop down that appears to view the options associated with the your selected U.S Code section." and points to the dropdown menu. A large red arrow points from the callout bubble towards the bottom right of the page.

3. Use the drop-down menu on the top of the screen to select from the following options:

- Display full text
- Save as or add to law list
- Show legislative impact summary
- Alert me when these sections are updated
- Alert me when any bills would change these sections
- Alert me when bills that affect these sections are enrolled

Access Services From the Search Tab

In this example, Public Law Text and U.S. Code are search sources. A word search on "stem cells" was requested.

1. To access Bill Text, Public Law Text or U.S. Code through the Search tab, check the box associated with the service you wish to use as a source. Then enter the words, bill numbers or time frame of added content for your requested search. Click "Search."

2. You can then access the various relationships between the listed public laws and U.S. Code sections and prior law, other U.S. Code titles, changes to the law since enactment and pending bills that might affect it.

3. As in previous examples, from the resulting screen, you can choose to set up customized alerts based on the selected law, view texts of any U.S. Code and public laws listed, see the laws that have amended the public law since enactment and view how pending bills would change the law. In addition, you can go on to view the legislative impact of any law listed on the screen by clicking on the double arrows to the left of the public law or U.S. Code section.
